

Self Love Potions

These Self Love Potions were created to enhance your feminine rituals and offer you a sensual moment of connection to your body.

Blended only on New Moon nights, they are charged with the energy of new beginnings as well as infused with all my love and care.

Self massage is a very intimate and nurturing practice, it helps to connect deeply to our body, develop self love and self trust.

- Massaging your yoni, the center of your feminine power, will make you feel more grounded, help you get in touch with your creativity, your inner wisdom and embody your femininity fully.
- Massaging your breasts, extensions of your heart and emissive pole of your body, will activate unconditional love for yourself and allow you to open up to the world from a place of alignment.

How to use?

Set an intention for this ritual, it can be to see yourself with the eyes of a lover, to open up to any pleasure sensation, to get in touch with your creativity, your femininity, your beauty... and pour it into the bottle.

Give the bottle a little shake to dynamize all the elements, empty the dropper in your palm and rub your hands to warm the oil, this will activate the compounds and essences.

Apply on your breasts for Pommes d'Amour or vulva as well as lower belly to relieve pain during periods for Yoni ma Chérie, and massage gently, holding your intention in your heart.

You can keep your Self Love Potions on your altar where they will charge up and be even more potent to use during your rituals.
